Dear Charles:

The write-up of your father in The Numismatist was so nice that I feel as though I really missed something by not knowing him. It isn't often that a man can be described as having had extraordinary knowledge and level judgment, and having been a good organizer, a business success, and one who worked for the general welfare of a science.

I am sure you are proud of your genes!

Cordially,

Dear Eric:

You were a most thoughtful individual to write your letter of the 2nd and I too am sorry that you did not ever meet my father. I don't know where I had gotten the idea that you had but assume that it was due to the fact that you had had correspondence with us in the late thirties.

I certainly agree with you that Jack Ogilvie did a fine job and, very frankly, it set me to thinking what would have been father's thoughts today and what action he might be taking. This certainly does pose a good question.

In any event, it was nice as always to see you last week and trust that we will get together again in the not too distant future.

Warm personal regards as always.

Sincerely,

In throwing out a piece of an old Numismatist, I ran into the lovely comments about your father and thought you might like an extra copy.

Dear Eric,

I deeply appreciate your note of the 2nd instant, as well as your thoughtfulness in sending me excerpts from the July, 1940, Numismatist. I do not have copies of the articles, and so am particularly pleased to have them so that they can be seen by M.W.'s grandchildren.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Charles M. Wormser.

Dear Eric:

Thanks so much for the check covering the postage. Frankly I thought I had indicated in my last letter that I was not expecting a remittance so just put it in your memory book that you have a luncheon or dinner or whatever coming to you.

Warm regards.

Dear Eric:

As I told you on the phone, the Post Office made life difficult for me and we only received the piece back today.

In any event it is enclosed herewith for your perusal and I am deeply grateful that you are willing to look it over.

Sorry to be so short on time but the sale is just a week away; hence my worry about getting it back.

I am forwarding herewith a check which I trust will be adequate for postage. My thanks and warm regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Eric:

It certainly was good to talk to you on the phone on Friday and I am only sorry that you were unable to stay on for the Society Lecture. Frankly it was one of the best in the series and was a delight.

I have located a 1699 Half Penny for you but it is what Seaby lists as Type III. Frankly I am somewhat confused in that I thought that this type, with the date in exergue, was what you wanted rather than Type II where the date follows the legend. Will you please clarify the matter to me for I will not make the necessary inquiries for Type II until you do so and then I will ask you which of the three varieties - or don't you care? - do you want?

Incidentally the Type III piece that I can send you is described to me as a "good fine".

Looking forward to hearing from you and with warm personal regards,

Very sincerely,

Dear Eric

Now that we are on a first name basis having had at least one telephone conversation, I certainly enjoyed the latter and hope it will be the precursor of many in the future

Regarding the names I mentioned

#1 Fyll Knoka 506 Immelkeppel
Ruf Bensberg Germany

He's an interesting person. A very busy person. His main forte is numismatics but he is also the last word in scales - He has auctions, makes up his own catalogues — Is a very dear friend of mine — The above is Dear Cologne

Robert Stern. 2050 Bracken Dr Chicago
He is a collector of Different Kinds of Postage scales. He is also trying to form an international association.

(3.) Arthur Middleton. 3-4 Barrett St
London W1M 5HH

You might drop him a line saying I suggested it and pay if he has any money scales to let you know.

We hope you stop off here on your way to Runaway Bay and give us a chance to spend some time together

Sincerely
Arthur

P.S. Michael Crawforth

A Collector — We visited him and family most delightful. Has a collection (app 600) and diverse material — include about 75 to 80 English Coin scales —

If you have some unusual ones Write him and enclose a few snaps — He will answer and be delighted

Dear Morton:

Your very nice letter is at hand and I appreciate the names of those who have an interest in the scales which I collect. I will certainly write several of them and hope for the best.

I received your recent letter in which you mentioned the change in address of Bob Steins from South to North Wacker, and I thank you.

I contacted Howard Baer and he seemed very pleased that his class treasurer was full of pep.

Under separate cover I am sending you a Fairbanks scale advertisement from 1877 as I found it in one of my Harpers Weekly sources. I thought it might go well with your collection.

I believe you told me you had a duplicate of some money scale, and if you do I would appreciate knowing about it. I have a couple of coin balance duplicates which might be of interest to you.

Thank you very much for your promptness.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Eric

Thanks so much for your letter and the Fairbanks Ad. enclosure. I have put it in my scrap book album, but only loosely as later it probably will be framed to hang midst other pictures pertaining to oneirology. I love to use the latter term — sounds so professional!?

I do have several brass foreign scales that are quite similar and not too uncommon. They are brass, And they are English probably by Harrison — Please excuse the masterpiece. Imagine you have such — I certainly could do without one in exchange

It is still my suggestion that you spend a day or two with us on the way to Jamaica. It would be so much fun having the Newmans using our spareroom

Please also let me know of your duplicates –

Again Thanks for the clipping I am already attached To it as one of the family –

Sincerely

Dec 4

PS I usually do not answer this promptly !!!
